City of Brookhaven Development Authority Selects First Vice Chairman

Brookhaven, GA – In a vote at today’s regularly scheduled Development Authority meeting, Luke Anderson was elected as the group’s first Vice Chairman to serve alongside Chairman Walt Ehmer.

“It has been such a great opportunity serving on this board and I look forward to continuing to advance the efforts of the City of Brookhaven and the Development Authority in this new role,” said Vice Chairman Anderson.

Luke Anderson, a licensed patent attorney, has served as a member of the Development Authority since 2013.

The Development Authority is a public body that promotes trade, commerce, industry and employment opportunities pursuant to the state constitution and the Georgia Development Authorities Law. The Development Authority operates under the direction of the City Manager and meets on an as-needed basis. Members serve four-year terms. Each person is appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by City Council.
