Brookhaven, GA, Oct. 25, 2013 – Brookhaven Police arrested two convicted felons Thursday night on 16 charges after officers found more than $32,000 worth of drugs and stolen property in their hotel room. One of the suspects was also wanted in Cherokee County.

Brookhaven officers encountered a suspicious person at the Red Roof Inn parking lot on North Druid Hills Road. Officers identified the suspect as Darrick Frazier, 39, of Stone Mountain.

Frazier was staying at the hotel with a female friend, Victoria Capland, 28, of Marietta. An investigation revealed that Capland was wanted by Cherokee County Sheriff's Office for shoplifting. Police then performed a search of the room and found heroin, marijuana, cocaine, psychedelic mushrooms, Xanax pills, syringes, a stolen handgun and $4,000 in cash.

Both Frazier and Capland were arrested on 13 felony and three misdemeanor charges combined, including trafficking heroine, drug possession, theft by receiving a stolen firearm, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and shoplifting. They are being held at DeKalb County jail.
