Over 1000 Cast Early Ballots at City of Brookhaven City Hall

Brookhaven, GA, Oct. 29, 2014 – The DeKalb County Board of Registration and Elections reports that 1154 voters have casted ballots during the first two days of early voting at Brookhaven City Hall for the General and Nonpartisan elections. This is the first year for the City of Brookhaven to serve as an early voting precinct. Residents who do not take advantage of early voting from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. before Oct. 31 must go to their polling place on Tuesday, Nov. 4 to cast their ballot.

“This a historic first in Brookhaven. Our residents have the ability to vote early in their neighborhood which is great,” said Mayor J. Max Davis.

City of Brookhaven District 2 residents also have the chance to cast their ballots in a Special Election to fill the vacated District 2 Council seat.
