PARC Brookhaven to lead Visioning Meetings for three City of Brookhaven Parks

(Brookhaven, GA) -- PARC Brookhaven will lead Visioning Meetings for Ashford Park, Skyland Park & Georgian Hills Park. These Visioning Sessions are supported by the City of Brookhaven and the City’s Parks & Recreation Department and co-sponsored by City Councilmember John Park.

Following the completion of the Comprehensive Parks & Recreation Master plan in September, 2014, the Visioning Sessions have been organized to seek broad community input for specific park improvement ideas in individual parks. The goal is to create detailed individual plans for each park that will be presented to the City Council and the Parks & Recreation Department for funding consideration in the 2015 and subsequent budget years. The plans are to depict desired park features and improvements and include recommended new equipment.

The Visioning Sessions are scheduled as follows:

Ashford Park	Georgian Hills Park	Skyland Park
Wednesday, 1/21 7 – 8:30 pm	Thursday, 1/22 7 – 8:30 pm	Monday, 1/26 7 – 8:30 pm
Thursday, 1/29 10 – 11:30 am	Monday, 2/2 10 – 11:30 am	Thursday 2/5 10 – 11:30 am
Ashford Park Community Center	City Hall	Briarwood Recreation Center

Each Visioning Session will be led by individual neighborhood PARC representatives and PARC leaders Sue Binkert and Jim Dupree. Citizens, Park supporters and users will be invited to voice ideas and recommend specific improvements of their parks.

PARC Brookhaven was formed by the leadership of the Governors Commission for City of Brookhaven Park & Recreation Committee and is an organization of representatives from all parks in the City of Brookhaven. PARC’s goal is to work with citizens, the elected officials and City staff to create world class parks and recreation in Brookhaven for the benefit of its citizens and park users.

The twelve City of Brookhaven park organizations active in PARC Brookhaven are:
