Join the Legal Food Frenzy and fight hunger in Georgia

Brookhaven, GA, April 27, 2015 – The law firm of McKenna Long & Aldridge is fighting hunger in Georgia. The Office of the Attorney General and the State Bar of Georgia are partnering with the Georgia Food Bank Association to host a statewide Legal Food Frenzy, a food and fund drive competition among all Georgia law firms and organizations.

One in four children in Georgia live in households that can't regularly put food on the table. Yet donations to the Atlanta Community Food Bank typically slow in the summer months precisely when the need among their clients greater.

Click on the link below to the team page for Brookhaven to raise food and funds for our hungry neighbors. Once you sign up, you'll be able to invite your own friends, family, and contacts to support those efforts, too.

Let's rise to the challenge and do our part to reduce hunger in Georgia!
