Brookhaven Police Officers Arrest Barricaded Suspects

Brookhaven, GA August 9, 2016 – At approximately 4:22 A.M. this morning, Brookhaven Police officers responded to 1750 Briarwood Road in reference to an armed person call. It was reported to Brookhaven Officers that two armed men entered an apartment with a female victim and her one-year-old daughter and demanded money. The first responding officers were able to help the victim escape from the residence along with the victim's daughter. Shortly after the victims was rescued, one of the armed suspects surrendered peacefully to Brookhaven Officers.

The second suspect refused to surrender to authorities, as a result, North Metro SWAT was called and arrived at the incident location. Negotiations were established with the remaining suspect in an attempt to get him to surrender. Eventually, the SWAT team made entry and the suspect was apprehended.

The suspects were identified as: Tyreun Gaines, 19 years old, of Toccoa, and Antione Coon, 30 years old, of Atlanta.

They are charged with:

- Home Invasion

Antione Coon was the suspect who barricaded himself inside the apartment. Both suspects were transported to the DeKalb County Jail.
